Sam N. Sherman

Sam's practice focuses on business, financial institution, and insurance litigation, representing plaintiffs and defendants in prosecuting and defending individual claims and class actions in state and federal courts.

Sam received his Bachelor of Arts in Communication-Journalism from Truman State University, and obtained his Juris Doctor, magna cum laude, from the University of Missouri-Kansas City School of Law. During law school, Sam competed on the National Moot Court Competition team and the ABA Negotiations team and served as Articles Editor for The Urban Lawyer and as a legal writing teaching assistant. He was inducted into the National Order of Barristers upon graduation and received the Robert Dewitt Award for Best Brief in the Ellison Moot Court Competition. Prior to attending law school, Sam worked as the Sports Editor of a local newspaper.

Sam is a native of Springfield, Missouri and resides in the Kansas City metropolitan area.
